

INTEGRATING TRADITIONS FOR WELLNESS

Proprietary Formulas

Our proprietary tincture formulas are unlike any on the market and offer acute relief as well as tonic support for constitutional health by combining the best of Asian and Western herbal traditions and modern science. Our remedies inspire a loyal following by practitioners and consumers alike. All of our formulas are available for distribution under your label and are also offered in bulk sizes.

Commitment to Quality

Superior products are only possible with exceptional medicinals. We are proud to work only with Chinese herb distributors who employ rigid standards and quality assurance testing. We emphasize buying certified organic, locally grown, or ethically wildcrafted herbs whenever possible. We qualify all suppliers with a third party, and each herb is analyzed for identity and purity. We are registered to manufacture certified organic products with CCOF.

Our Approach

Launched by a professional herbalist / acupuncturist, and a medical doctor, Five Flavors Herbs bridges the therapeutic traditions of East and West. We combine scientific research and clinical practice with millenniums old theory of healing, offering reliable tools for practitioners and purveyors. Truly unique formulations, our extract line stands out both in approach and effectiveness.
